Dear Sir:

Louvre Statuette NO.27215

You may well recall the above captioned Ancient Egyptian Amarna Princess, which for many years, has been the subject of a dispute between the Mansoor Family and the Louvre.

For some mysterious and suspicious reason, this artifact which was offered to the Louvre, by the family of my late father, M.A.Mansoor, to honor the memory of the late Abbe Etienne Drioton, had been removed from public view. Several attempts to have your organization, either return the artifact to the donors, i.e. my family, or to restore it to public view, failed.

Since, I personally offered the artifact to the Louvre, thru the late Madame Noblecourt, I deemed it appropriate to make another effort to settle this matter. Hence this letter: very simply I am willing to offer the Louvre US$ 1,000,000.00 , one million United States dollars, for the return of the artifact. If you agree, I will let you know where to deliver the artifact. I think the French Consulate in Los Angeles, California, will be a logical place. I, in return, will deliver your envoy a certified check for that amount.

This letter is time sensitive and I would appreciate your positive answer no later than December 1, 2012.

Sincerely,

Michel Mansoor
